

Top 10 ESL Mistakes for Countable vs Uncountable Nouns

Countable	Countable Example	Uncountable	Uncountable Example
chair/table/desk/bed	The furnished apartment included a bed, a dining table, several chairs and two desks.	furniture	The furnished apartment included 12 pieces of furniture. machine/computer/printer/lathe	My home office has two computers and a printer connected on a network.	equipment	Last year I purchased several pieces of equipment for my home office. suitcase/duffle bag/backpack	The airline will let you carry on just one small suitcase and a backpack or handbag and there is a charge now to check a suitcase or duffle bag.	luggage/ baggage	I bought two small pieces of luggage that I could carry on the plane. dollar/euro/yen/pound/peso	The spot rate to exchange dollars for Euros is better than the actual exchange rate you will get.	money	Be sure to bring a lot of money in cash to exchange for the local currency when you travel. suggestion/recommendation	The counselor gave Eduardo many suggestions and recommendations to help him plan his academic career.	advice	The counselor gave Eduardo several pieces of excellent advice when he was enrolled as an exchange student. item/fact/date	You have left out several items and dates on your application form.	information	You have left out several pieces of information on your application form. citation/source/quote/note	Make sure your paper includes all your sources and citations for your quotes.	research	Make sure your paper includes all the details of your research. job/task/title/project	Her resume listed several jobs and many projects over the past few years.	work	Her resume showed her work history over the past few years.
point/topic/aspect	His resume indicated that he knew about many current topics in biotech.	knowledge/ expertise	His resume indicated that he had much knowledge about (expertise in) biotech. level/achievement/accomplishment	After all the hours you have put into studying English I can see you have gone up by at least two levels!	progress	After all the hours you have put into studying English I can see you have made a lot of progress!

This worksheet was prepared by Charles Fischer for B.E.S.T. at best4edu.com